

A list of potential courses for BALAC students through AIMS

I. 【Courses offered by IGS for Spring semester】

- You are required to take at least 6 credits from five courses listed below.
- They are offered with 2 credits for regular students; however, an instructor will offer the independent work equivalent of one credit for BALAC students to gain 3 credits.

Peace and Coexistence (Total: 3 credits)

- Peace and Coexistence I (1 credit)
- Peace and Coexistence II (1 credit)
- Independent Study on Peace and Coexistence (1 credit)

Social Statistics Analysis (Total: 3 credits)

- Social Statistics Analysis I (1 credit)
- Social Statistics Analysis II (1 credit)
- Independent Study on Social Statistics Analysis (1 credit)

Contemporary Issues in International Tourism (Total: 3 credits)

- Contemporary Issues in International Tourism I (1 credit)
- Contemporary Issues in International Tourism II (1 credit)
- Independent Study on Contemporary Issues in International Tourism (1 credit)

Language and Thought (Total: 3 credits)

- Language and Thought I (1 credit)
- Language and Thought II (1 credit)
- Independent Study on Language and Thought (1 credit)

Anthropology of Globalization (Total: 3 credits)

Anthropology of Globalization I (1 credit)

Anthropology of Globalization II (1 credit)

Independent Study on Anthropology of Globalization (1 credit)

- Other courses offered by IGS

Note. You can take any course, but be aware that they are all 1 credit.

II. 【Courses offered by Morito Institute of Global Higher Education】

Japanese Companies and Social Entrepreneurship (Total: 3 credits)

- Study on Japanese Companies and Social Entrepreneurship (2 Credits)
- The Independent Study on Japanese Companies and Social Entrepreneurship (1 Credit)

The Japanese Culture and Peace [1st term] (Total: 3 credits)

- The Japanese Culture and Peace (2 credits)
- The Independent Study on Japanese Culture and Peace (1 credit)

- Japanese language courses